HOURLY OF POWER OF 11.05.2008

PROGRAM OPENING/TRUMPET FANFARE/V.O.

VO: Today on the Hour of Power former Seattle Seahawks owner Ken Behring shares his passion for distributing wheelchairs around the world.

KEN: And when I lifted that first man who had just had a stroke and his wife had just passed away, and he completely broke down as you picked him up and put him in the chair. He said now I can talk with my neighbors.

VO: Then the wonderful voice of Mark Harris.

MARK: (SINGING) I don't have a thing that I got on my own. I don't have a care that I carry alone but I have a God carrying me.

VO: Then Pastor Schuller asks the question are you ready to move from possibility thinking to possibility doing? And do something beautiful for God.

RAS: Today we are reaching 180 million people a week in Southern China with the Hour of Power. Sounds like a lot, but its only 15% of the country and we can reach the entire country with Jesus Christ' gospel and good news.

VO: Join us today for the best hour on television, the Hour of Power with Robert Schuller.

HYMN - "Joyful, Joyful.."

Joyful, joyful, we adore You, God of glory, Lord of love; Hearts unfold like flowers before You, opening to the sun above. Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away; Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day. Amen! Amen! Amen!

GOOD MORNING/OPENING SENTENCE/INVOCATION

RAS: Good morning! And welcome to the Crystal Cathedral. You know Jesus was very specific about his mission on earth. He said, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life." And that's why He brought us here today. He brought us here today to be able to shed His light and bring light to the darkest areas that penetrate your minds and your hearts and your souls and your bodies. He came to bring light and to bring life and that's why we're here to celebrate life. And so would you turn to the people who are standing next to you and behind you and shake their hands and say God loves you and I do, too.

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You for the privilege we have to be able to worship You, to be able to recognize that You are truly the light of the world and as long as Your light shines within us, we too can be used by You to make a positive impact in people's lives. And so let Your light shine to the utmost and the utter ends of the earth, Amen.

HYMN - "Medley – O Jesus, We Adore You/What a Friend"

O Jesus, we adore You, upon the cross, our King! We bow our hearts before You, Your gracious name we sing. That name has brought salvation, that name in life our stay. Our peace, our consolation, when life shall fade away.

What a Friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and grief's to bear.

What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer. O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear, all because we do not carry everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere? We should never be discouraged: take it to the Lord in prayer! Can we find a friend so faithful, who will all our sorrows share? Jesus knows our every weakness; take it to the Lord in prayer!

Jesus, name above all names; Beautiful Savior, glorious Lord.

Emmanuel, God is with us; Blessed Redeemer, Living Word.

SCRIPTURE – Psalm 33 - RHS

RHS: You may be seated. Hear the words of the scripture:

Rejoice in the Lord all you good people. Praise from you His beautiful. Praise the Lord with the harp. Make melody to Him with instrument of ten strings. Sing to Him a new song. Play skillfully with a shout of joy. Marvelous how the church of Jesus, the synagogues had services like we have. They had orchestras, they had choruses. One thing they didn't have were drums. And play skillfully with a shout of joy for the word of the Lord is right! In all His work is done in truth. He loves righteousness and justice. The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord and it's hard for us to keep remembering that in today's world. Keep looking for the goodness of the Lord; it's around us every hour of every day. Yes let all the earth fear the Lord! Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him. This is the word of God.

SOLO – SARA GROVES – “Something Has Changed”

Something changed inside me, broke wide open, all spilled out till I had no doubt that something changed. I never could believe it, till I felt it in my own heart, in the deepest parts there healing came. And I cannot make it, and I cannot fake it, and I can't afford it, but it's mine.

Something so amazing in a heart so dark and dim when the walls fall down and the light comes in. And I cannot make it, and I cannot fake it, and I can't afford it, but it's mine.

And I cannot make it, and I cannot fake it, and I can't afford it, but it's mine. And I cannot make this, and I cannot fake it, and I can't afford it, but it's mine. Oh it's mine, oh it's mine. O thank you, Lord. Leaving like a skin upon the ground. Something changed inside me, broke wide open, all spilled out till I had no doubt that something changed.

RAS “Thank you for coming..”

RAS: Thank you so much for coming and for sharing your music with us.

HYMN - "Medley – Hand in Hand now Walk w/Jesus/Jesus is all the World to Me"

Hand in hand now walk with Jesus, He will take your fears away; From the dark of error's shadow walk into the light of day! Like the bright warm rays of sunshine is our Lord who leads the way; He turns darkness into sunlight, for He is the Truth, the Way.

Let your heart with love rejoicing, take all hurt and sorrow out; Loving Christ, your only Savior, you shall know no fear or doubt. With your hand in His, He'll guide you, in His path you'll find the way; Turn to joy and holy gladness; praise to Christ our Lord today!

Jesus is all the world to me, my life, my joy, my all; He is my strength from day to day, without Him I would fall. When I am sad to Him I go, no other one can cheer me so; When I am sad He makes me glad, He's my Friend.

Jesus is all the world to me, I want no better Friend; I trust Him now, I'll trust Him when life's fleeting days shall end. Beautiful life with such a Friend; beautiful life that has no end; Eternal life, eternal joy, He's my Friend.

ANTHEM - "Let Loud Hosannas Ring"

Lift up your heads, O gates, and bow before the King. Lift up your heads, O gates, let loud hosannas ring. He is the King of glory and righteous are His ways. Lift up your heads, O gates, and offer Him your praise.

Lift up your heads, O gates, and let the King come in. Lift up your heads, O gates, the battle He will win. He is the King of glory; sing praise and worship Him. Lift up your heads, O gates, and let the joy begin.

The Savior has come, and people line the streets. By thousands they shout, "Hosanna to the King!" Soon the loud hosannas will be changed to "Crucify!" But death will not hold Him; In three days He will rise!

Lift up your heads, O gates, and bow before the King. Lift up your heads, O gates; let loud hosannas ring. He is the King of glory, let all creation sing. Lift up your heads, O gates, and endless praises bring. Sing hosanna! Let loud hosannas ring!

RAS THANK YOU TO DARRELL, CHOIR & DON

RAS: That was Darrell Gardner on the trumpet, thank you Darrell. And thank you choir and thank you, of course, Don.

INTERVIEW – KEN BEHRING

RAS: ROBERT A. SCHULLER KB: KEN BEHRING

RAS: Well my guest today is the former owner of the Seattle Seahawks. He is a prosperous real estate developer and entrepreneur. In spite of his achieving great success in business, he wasn't fulfilled until he met Jesus Christ and actively began to give generously to those in need, which is where he found his true fulfillment in life. He now devotes his time to the Wheelchair Foundation, delivering wheelchairs to people in some of the remote parts of the world. In fact Donna and I recently went on a trip with him to Africa. In fact, I want you to look at the Jumbotron and get an idea of what he does. Take a look at this video:

(VIDEO ROLL IN)

DONNA: Four years ago, Robert and I were invited by Ken Behring and the Wheelchair Foundation to go on a wheelchair distribution to several different countries, mostly on the continent of Africa. It was a real eye opener. Yeah, it saddens the heart to realize the role of the disabled people in these cultures. They're forgotten, they're forgotten part of society. There's people all over the world like this. Their parents and their loved ones can't do anything for them. And these people were carrying them around on their backs. It's a pretty bad situation.

But the great news is, we are making a difference. By partnering with the Wheelchair Foundation, we are making a difference, a huge difference. Getting a wheelchair for these people, it means life. It means mobility, it means freedom. They can go to church; they can go from their bedroom to outside their house so they can have a social life because some of these people have not been living. They've been simply existing.

It's time for us to show them in a tangible way what it means to be a Christian. To go over there and to physically do something, so we can show them we really love you. We are the hands of Jesus Christ when we grab that person and we put them in the chair, or we sponsor somebody with our financial giving, we are showing them that possibility thinking and faith in action means we're going to do something for you. As, they were moved into mobility into these great, beautiful wheelchairs you could see the countenance on their face change, you could see them come alive. They just were so overwhelmed with gratitude, just so filled with joy. There's nothing more rewarding than to do something worthwhile, to see the joy in somebody else's eye and to know that you've changed a life.

(END OF VIDEO ROLL IN)

RAS: Would you please give a very warm welcome to Ken Behring? Ken, God loves you and so do we.

KB: Thank you.

RAS: You know Donna and I have been extremely touched to be able to go with you and actually pick these children up and put them in a wheelchair. Tell us, how did the Wheelchair Foundation get started?

KB: Well it was a little bit by accident. I went through the life like everybody living the American dream, trying to make money, being a success in business. And I had more than my share of success and I finally got to the top of the mountain where there was nothing money could buy or nothing that material that I wanted. And the top of the mountain was barren. So I know that there's something else in life besides money and material things. So I started thinking well how can I, what's the purpose of my life, it's not making money, it's to help people. So I started by doing different things, taking things to Africa: school books, clothes, and it ended up that they asked me to take some meat to Cassava refugees and when I had my big airplane left from the Seahawks so when I loaded there was extra room, so they gave me some wheelchairs to drop off in Romania. So that was the first time I had ever thought about a wheelchair that never had anybody in one. But when I lifted that first man who had just had a stroke and his wife had just passed away, and he completely broke down as you picked him up and put him in the chair. He said now I can talk with my neighbors, I gave him a new life. And from there we're now 750,000 chairs later in 158 countries.

I think, you know, the most important thing at times I think I'm traveling too much that I have to slow down. I can't be doing all this. In the middle of the night, I wake up and I see thousands of up reached arms of people like that in your film, without legs saying please help. There's so many and unless we help these people, they're in a hut; they don't even get to see the sunshine. That's so little that we can do if you help us deliver a chair someplace in the world and you're giving people hope, you're showing them that somebody really does care. And that's what's important is getting a wheelchair. As knowing, yes, somebody does care. And now we have hope that maybe we can go back to school, go to church, become a useful person. So thank you.

RAS: Well we are committed to buying as many wheelchairs as possible because we believe that it's possible. I believe there's people here who can help us make this possible. In fact, the fact is we have trouble paying our own bills.

We do. But at the same time I believe we have to give, and we have to make an obligation to give. And so we're going to do that. We are going to make a commitment to give wheelchairs to people. We have to do that. It's imperative that we give back. And so we will.

KB: Thank you.

RAS: And more specifically, you know last time you were here I said I want to give chairs in Africa..

KB: Yes.

RAS: ..and we did. I want to give chairs now in China. And we will. And the reason I want to go to China is many fold. I'll explain some of that later, but can you explain to us how much need there is in China?

KB: Well I've been going to China for about seven years. I'm on the board of China disabled persons federation, which takes care of all the disabled in China. We have 85 million members that either physically disabled, blind, deaf or mental, 85 million that the country of China has not been able to help. They've spent their money in infrastructure and trying to get jobs. They came from, as you know, very communist into a capitalistic, and we've given several hundred thousand, I have partnerships in 58 cities in China, and I sure hope that you can go with us and we will give distributions in some of these cities. And at some point, I just wish a lot of you, you're people that are here, could go on a distribution. After you once lift a person up that's been in a hut and has never seen the sunshine. And taking this outside put him in a chair.. it's so simple to change a life. They need the hope that you're giving them.

RAS: It gives them some mobility, doesn't it?

KB: Right. And hope.

RAS: And hope, precisely both.

KB: Yes.

RAS: And that's what's important. You know people forget that once you get out of the main cities of China that the majority of the population is still struggling.

KB: Nine hundred million people in rural China that makes less than a dollar a day.

RAS: That's struggling.

KB: That's struggling.

RAS: And so we're very, very excited about partnering..

KB: Well thank you.

RAS: ..with you to make a difference in the continent of Asia, in reaching this country that really needs our help today. And so thank you, Ken. We're going to go, you know when we're going?

KB: For the Para-Olympics. I was chairman of the US Para-Olympics, now I'm involved over there. This is all the disabled people like after the Olympics. And I think you will really enjoy it. These people become athletes. We give sport wheelchairs all over the world, too. And one quick second: we went to Columbia and we gave a hundred sport wheel chairs to a hundred young soldiers that had their legs blown off trying to prevent drugs from coming; Kids 17, 18, 19. We put them in these sport chairs and they were running and racing, there's so much that we can do..

RAS: It goes on forever.

KB: Yeah, thank you.

RAS: Thank you Ken and we're just very, very honored and thrilled to be able to partner with the Wheelchair Foundation to make a difference.

KB: Okay.

RAS: And we're going to do it!
KB: Okay.
RAS: We're going to do it.
KB: Good.
RAS: Thank you Ken, thank you.
SOLO – MARK HARRIS – “One True God”

I don't have a God I can put on a stand or a God I hold in the palm of my hand. I have a God holding me. And I don't have a God that I can create in the place I live, with the money I make. I have a God; He made everything. So I don't need a temporary, man-made deity cause I got the real thing, I got the real thing.

He's the Lord of all the earth, the maker of all things. He alone is the one true God. Kingdoms rise and fall, but even through it all He remains the one true God, yeah.

I don't have a thing that I got on my own. I don't have a care that I carry alone but I have a God carrying me. And I don't have sin that He doesn't forgive and I don't have a heart that is worthy of His but I have a God who still loves me, yeah.

So I don't need a temporary man-made deity cause I got the real thing, I got the real thing, yeah. The Lord of all the earth, the Maker of all things, He alone is the one true God. Kingdoms rise and fall even through it all He remains the one true God.

Who is this King of Glory? The Lord strong and mighty. Who is this King of Glory? The Lord strong and mighty? Who is this King of Glory? Who is this King of Glory?

He's the Lord of all the earth, the Maker of all things. He alone is the one, true God. Kingdoms rise and fall, but even through it all He remains the one, true God. The one true God. God, yeah, yeah. I have God, He's holding me.

RAS THANK YOU TO MARK HARRIS
RAS: Thank you Mark.

MESSAGE/PRAYER - ROBERT A. SCHULLER
"Claim Your Possibilities"

RAS: You know many people believe that my father was the founder of this church. And in many ways that's true but the real foundation goes way back before him, actually. In fact I want to give a little credit to my great uncle. That would be his mother's brother. My great uncle was a man by the name of Henry Beltman, and Henry Beltman was a missionary in China. And Henry Beltman came back from a furlough in China in the 30's, saw my father five years old and he rustled his hair as he visited his sister and said oh you're going to be a preacher when you grow up, and my father took that to heart and became a pastor. Well today when I prepare for my sermons, I always pull out this book. It's called A Harmony of the Gospels. It's written by Kerr, k-e-r-r. It's a very simple book, actually. What it does is it puts the four gospels side by side next to each other, and it puts it in chronological order, so that if there's a text that I'm reading out of the New Testament or the gospel specifically, I can look at all four of the gospels side by side. For instance, I don't know if you can get a close up of here, this is the passion week where the triumphant entry or Palm Sunday, you can notice that there's four columns here and there's writing in all four columns, which means the triumphant entry of Jesus Christ is in all four gospels. Otherwise you can go to another passage, like here are three columns of a passage but there's nothing in John so that doesn't appear in John's gospel. But you can read them side-by-side, so I like to know what all the different gospels have to say about the same text, so I always read it.

And why do I bring this in here? This is given to me by my Uncle Henry Beltman. It's got his signature in it and it says 11/4/18. That's when he bought it. And he gave it to me when he passed away, he willed his entire library to me so I have several hundred books from him, and this is just one of his books that I've inherited. My Uncle Henry. A missionary in China in the 30's. Imprisoned, escaped and found his way back to the United States. He's buried here on the Cathedral campus.

We have a tremendous history and a long history with China. It starts back before China closed its gates and closed its doors. And they remained completely closed from the II World War up until 1978. That was a long time, decades. While the rest of the western world was watching television and listening to radio and looking at magazines and understanding a completely different culture, China was closed, completely closed. Seventy-eight it changed like that. They developed a new constitution, they developed what they called the socialist capitalism, and they opened their doors. Within months, I got on an airplane and I went there. The doors were open and I went. And when I went to China for the very first time, it was the most amazing thing I'd ever seen in my life. There were no hotels. No new hotels. The old hotels were taken out of mothballs and literally the pillows and the sheets smelled like mothballs. I kid you not. I walked around those streets and you would have thought that I was an alien from Mars. There was not a single colored piece of clothing that I saw on anyone in all of China. Not one. They had what was considered the Mau dress which was a white shirt, and black slacks, and the women had white blouses and black skirts. And that was the dress. There wasn't a single piece of colored clothing in the country. There weren't any cars. No cars. In fact, the car, they had a car in the square where people could go and it wasn't operating. People could go and sit in it and take their picture so they could show somebody that they actually sat in a real car. Can you believe it? And then I go walking down the streets of China. I'm a head taller than everybody else. I'm wearing a pink polo shirt, denim jeans; Levi's to be specific, white Adidas tennis shoes. It's the 70's, the late 70's so I've got my bling bling going, you know. I had a gold cross that I'm wearing that would show on my chest as I walked around.

And you would have thought I was the pied piper. I looked behind me and there would be a hundred people following me down the streets. So I'd stop and they would all gather around me and just gawk at me, stare at me and I'd stick my hand out and they would look at my hand and chuckle. And so I'd say hello. Anyone speak English? And there was this sea of beautiful black hair, and suddenly out of this sea I would hear this voice, I speak a little English. I said can I talk to you and you'd see this ripple come through this sea, like a fish swimming up a still, calm lake. And all of a sudden here would be this man or this woman, young man or young woman, and I would talk to them, I'd say so you speak English? Yes, we study in the university. It was always the same answer; it was always the same questions. Yes we study in the University. And then they'd say so what do you do? And I said oh I'm a teacher. Oh what do you teach? I teach about God. And when I said that, their jaws dropped. Teach about God? Are you kidding me? They wouldn't say that, but that was the expression on their face. And then they'd say what's that around your neck and I said oh that's a cross and it says God loves you and so do I. And they'd laugh and then they'd ask me about God because I'm a teacher of God and they haven't had any, they haven't heard about God. They didn't know God exists, basically. But they did in their hearts.

And what I would do is I would lead them through a pamphlet that was written by Bill Bright in 1965. He is the founder of Campus Crusade for Christ. And I would sit there and just open up the pages and they'd read it word for word. And I remember one night we were.. I had my flashlight out and underneath the flashlight we're reading the pages or they're reading the pages and they get to this point where it says if you would like to accept Jesus Christ as your Savior, you can pray this prayer right now. And they said can we do that? I said sure. We can pray here? And I said yes. There's no reason not to. And I led them in a prayer and they accepted Jesus Christ and it was the same thing everywhere I went. A hunger and a thirst to know God, to accept Jesus Christ as their Savior and to begin a journey living with Christ and then I'd give them one of the little pocket New Testaments that I brought with me and that was my time in China.

What seeds were planted? What has been the harvest of planting those seeds? Here you have some of the most intelligent minds in China, those who have studied English, those who are in the university coming to a full knowledge of who Jesus is, accepting Jesus as the person, Lord and Savior. And what happened to those young men and women? That was 30 years ago. And from that time to this moment, I have been praying that God would open the doors to China, that we could continue to minister and share the good news of Jesus Christ with this country who has been closed from western civilization, who has a pure understanding and a realization that there is a God because that is an instinctual reality within the human spirit. And they want to know who Jesus is. But they don't even know Him. And how can we reach this country?

When my father started this ministry, he invited Dr. Norman Vincent Peale to come. And when Norman Vincent Peale came, he ignited this place with a positive energy. He had written the book The Power of Positive Thinking, one of the greatest selling books of all time at that time. And he came. And he spoke. And my father got excited with the idea of positive thinking and how important it is to think positive thoughts because until you can think positive thoughts, you can never really acquire the gifts and the skills that God has for you. Positive thinking is a foundation.

But this thought came to him, that's not enough. We need to go further. And he wrote the Power of Possibility Thinking. And possibility thinking is where we fill our minds with positive thoughts so we can think of the opportunities that God has created for us, to do positive things. What I want to do is take those positive things and put them into positive action.

And today I'm challenging and incorporating and really encouraging all of us to partner together to make a difference in China, in a huge powerful way, because my father's teaching is possibility thinking, he has been invited to China numerous times to speak and to teach. About what? Possibility thinking. And he's plowed the fields and the seeds have been sown and it is time for us to reach out to this country and make a difference. Today we are reaching 180 million people a week in southern China with the Hour of Power. Today we are reaching out to that country and we want to reach the rest of the country. That's only about 15 percent of the country. It sounds like a lot but its only 15 percent of the country. And we can reach the entire country with Jesus Christ' gospel and good news as we continue to share with them that we care.

How do we do that? First of all we're going to give wheelchairs. But these chairs are going to have a different title on it. They're not going to be.. we're not going to call these things wheelchairs. Can you see that sticker? It says wheelchair foundation? The chairs we give away are going to say possibility chairs. You like that idea? Possibility chairs. And that's because we are giving the individuals new possibilities, new hope and a new drive in life. We're going to give these chairs away. That's just step one.

We're going to continue to home mentoring program. The children of migrant workers in China are in desperate situations of education. And we have the opportunity to help the exceptional middle school students to help them acquire what they need to go on to high school and make a difference in their family, because we educate one, and that starts the ball rolling to help the whole family, and so we're going to do that. We're going to bring light into the dark huts that don't have light so they can read at night. We're going to provide clean, safe drinking water for families. We're going to provide vocational mentoring. What does it mean? We need what we're calling silver tigers. Like that name? I need silver tigers to help me go over there and provide vocational mentoring. In other words, I'm asking for retired engineers, doctors, nurses, educators, lawyers, scientists and teachers who are members of this church, no matter where you are in the world, global members from around the world to suit up and go into action by using your lifetime of experience and knowledge to help lift up the poor and the needy families of individuals in China and specifically the province of Guangzhou, to be a volunteer missionary, as a mentor and a team making a difference. A silver tiger. Is there anyone here who wants to be a silver tiger and go to China and make a difference? Oh there's a few. It's getting better. Oh there are two hands up, okay; we've got a few hands going up. We're going to gather silver tigers from around the world and we're going to make a difference.

The bottom line is, we're going to raise a million dollars and the fact of the matter is we don't have a million dollars. I've spent the last two, three weeks in budget meetings, trying to figure out how we're going to operate within our projected income that we have for this year. There isn't a million dollars left over. That's the facts. That sounds a lot like many of your checkbooks, I suspect. Where you just don't have enough money left over at the end of the month. But somehow, somehow God always provides. And we survive. God I believe, truly I believe that God honors a commitment when you do something that you know you need to do, that God has called you to do and you make that commitment, God provides the way. I know that God's going to provide the way today because first of all we're just doing what He told us to do.

In Matthew, Jesus shares with us. He calls Himself the King. "Then the King will say to those on His right, come you who are blessed by My Father. Take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat. I was thirsty; you gave Me something to drink. I was a stranger and you invited Me in. I needed clothing and you clothed Me. I was sick and you looked after Me. I was in prison and you came and visited Me. And they all said when did we do these things, Lord? And He said when you did it to the least of these, you did it to Me." That's what God has called us to do. To reach out to those who are hungry, thirsty. Those who need clothing, who are sick and in prison. He wants us to reach out to the strangers that we have never met and give them a hand. And the greatest hand we can give them is hope. Hope for a future that has potential, hope for eternity that's going to make a huge impact in their lives. And that's what I'm challenged to do today and I'm asking you to join me in this challenge.

And I'm asking you today to support this and to support me as we move forward and make a difference in reaching into a country today that is ripe for harvest. It's ripe. The time is now.

Dear Heavenly Father, You truly are a God with infinite possibilities. We cannot even begin to imagine how we can reach the people that need to be reached today but we know that with You all things are possible. So Lord as we respond to Your will. Give us the faith. So we thank You God for this opportunity. We love You Lord, Amen.

HYMN - "Rise Up, O Church of God"

Rise up, O Church of God! Have done with lesser things; Give heart and soul and mind and strength to serve the King of Kings.

Rise up, O Church of Christ! The world for you does wait to share your love and joy and faith. Rise up, rise up, be great! Amen!

BENEDICTION - RAS

RAS: And now may the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit touch your hearts, your minds and your souls with the reality of His goodness. And may you have the faith and the dedication to serve the least of these, Amen.

ANTHEM - "We Walk by Faith"

We walk by faith and not by sight, we trust in God and not in might. For in our darkness He is light. We walk by faith and not by sight. Sometimes trials come our way. We don't know what to do or say. But we know God will make a way if we will trust, trust and obey.

We walk by faith and not by sight. We trust in God and not in might. For in our darkness He is light. We walk by faith and not by sight. We trust in God and in His Son. What God has promised will be done. And as each journey is begun His Holy Spirit makes us one.

We walk by faith and not by sight. We trust in God and not in might. For in our darkness He is light. We walk by faith and not by sight. We may not fully understand, but we are guided by His hand. And as we follow faith's command, God leads us to the Promised Land.

We walk by faith and not by sight. We trust in God and not in might. For in our darkness He is light. We walk by faith and not by sight.
