PROGRAM OPENING/TRUMPET FANFARE/V.O.

JOSH: If I can encourage anybody to have a life changing experience, it would be to accept Christ and live for Him.

VO: Also today, one of the world's greatest organists, Joyce Jones performs on the Crystal Cathedral's mighty Hazel Wright organ.

JOYCE: (ORGAN PLAYS)

VO: Then, with all the negative economic news these days, do you need encouragement for every day living? Let Dr. Robert Schuller help you find your smile again with his powerful message How to Put a WOW in Your Tomorrow!

RHS: How do you put a wow in life? You need a purpose that will impassion you, you need a self that will give you pride. You need to have a faith that'll keep you going through the losses and through the defeats and through the tough times.

VO: Join us today for the best hour on television, the Hour of Power with Robert Schuller.

HYMN - "Joyful, Joyful.."

Joyful, joyful, we adore You, God of glory, Lord of love; Hearts unfold like flowers before You, opening to the sun above. Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away; Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day. Amen! Amen! Amen!

GOOD MORNING/OPENING SENTENCE/INVOCATION

RHS: Good morning! Well if you haven't been in the habit of going to church every Sunday, let me tell you what you can expect here. You can expect some ideas are going to come into your mind that are going to be a little different from the kind of ideas that bombard you through the week. You're going to hear some words spoken and sung and they are going to impact your mind with thoughts that are positive. And you're going to feel an energy flow through you so that you'll know this has been an hour of power, and when you leave you'll know how right on the button Schuller was when he said, "This is the day that God has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it."

And so God, thank You for planning life so that an hour a week we can retreat into a place of quietness and peace, happiness and where we can laugh and feel love around us and get a lift. This is the place. This is the hour, this is Your gift. Hallelujah, amen.

HYMN - "Medley – Have Faith in God My Heart/Tis So Sweet"

Have faith in God, my heart, trust and be unafraid; God will fulfill in every part each promise He has made.

Have faith in God, my mind, e'en though the light burns low, God's mercy holds a wiser plan than you can fully know.

Lord Jesus, make me whole; Grant me Your resting place. I give my all, heart, mind and soul, completely to Your grace.

'Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus, just to take Him at His word, just to rest upon His promise, just to know "Thus says the Lord." Jesus, Jesus, how I trust Him! How I've proved Him o'er and o'er! Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus!
O for grace to trust Him more!

Oh how sweet to trust in Jesus, for His love will never cease, and in simple faith
He gives me life and health and joy and peace! Jesus, Jesus, how I trust Him!
How I've proved Him o'er and o'er! Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus! O for grace to trust Him more!

SCRIPTURE – Psalm 27 & 28 - RHS

RHS: You may be seated. Now this passage from scripture this morning is from Psalm 27 and 28.

The Lord is my Light. Why? He drives the darkness of doubt and cynicism, suspicion and negative thinking out. And that really puts light in your brain instead of darkness in your personal. The Lord is my Light and my Salvation which means He helps you to become the person He wants you to be. Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid? For He will hide me in His shelter in the day of trouble. Oh God, how true. When life puts danger in front of you, He is your fortress because He strengthens your faith and you look beyond the crisis to tomorrow. You know, the trouble is not going to last. Tough times never last but tough people do. The day of trouble, He will set me upon a rock. I will not become emotionally unstable. Teach me Your way, oh Lord, lead me on a level path and don't let me get into a downhill spin, please. Lead me on a level path. I believe, oh this is a great verse, preached on it a lot. I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living and in the land of the dying, where we live today. Wait, oh wait, oh wait for the Lord. Be strong. Let your heart take courage. Yes. Yes. Wait for the Lord. Oh God, be our shepherd. Oh you're going to hear a great sermon on that this morning. And carry us forever. Forever. Forever. Look what this says. Salvation, He's the strong one, He's the shelter, so be strong and God be our Shepherd. It's all in the Bible; I didn't make it up.

May God bless the reading of His word and the thoughts that will come to it from it.

INTRODUCTION TO GUEST CHOIR - RHS

RHS: And now the anthem from Holland. You learned by heart the music you're going to be singing and it's all in English and you don't naturally sing English. The long trip to be here to sing for us we're very, very honored. Thank you.

ANTHEM/GUEST CHOIR – GROOTKOOR - "Deus Salutis"

O mighty Lord, give Thou Thine hand to succor him in barren land that he may in his upward quest through conflicts find eternal rest.

All graces that the Church can know, in heav'n above, or earth below, I claim them all as my due right. If I possess Thy natures might.

I'll cling to Thee while I have breath. I'll praise the virtues of Thy death. I'll bear the cross, I'll breast the tide, if Thou thyself in me abide. Amen, Amen, Amen.

ANTHEM/GUEST CHOIR – GROOTKOOR - "Anthem for the World"

All around the world I hear a thousand different voices singing. All around the world it's growing stronger day after day. If we could sing together the song would last forever. Sing an anthem for the world the voices rising, show the world there's a way. Sing an anthem for the world the voices rising, show the world there's a way.

All around the world I hear a thousand different voices singing. All around the world it's growing stronger day after day. If we could sing together the song would last forever. Sing an anthem for the world the voices rising, show the world there's a way. Sing an anthem for the world, the voices rising, show the world there's a way.

INTERVIEW – JOSH HAMILTON

RHS: ROBERT H. SCHULLER      JH: JOSH HAMILTON

RHS: Now we have one of the greatest athletes as my guest today. Josh Hamilton. Now it's an amazing story and it deserved to be written in a book and he wrote it, in a book and it's awesome. Josh Hamilton, Beyond Belief. Now if you don't know, Josh Hamilton is still today one of the greatest baseball players in the United States. Plays with the Texas Rangers, he's their star outfielder. And he recently made big news, broke a record at the 2008 all star home run derby in Yankee Stadium. He hit 28 home runs in one round, shattering the previous record for 24. Now Josh' biggest success did not happen on the field. He'll tell us about that. We're so honored to have you with us, Josh.

JH: Pleasure, pleasure.

RHS: Thank you. What's it like to hit records and break records like you've done?

JH: It's an amazing accomplishment, but the most amazing thing is obviously giving God the glory for everything.

RHS: Oh, tell us what that everything means.

JH: Everything means you know its amazing because you know growing up, all I wanted to do was play baseball, and you know, so that's all I did was play baseball. You know and I got separated from you know going to church and that sort of things, but you know I tell you when I accepted Christ when I was 18 years old, after I came back from my rookie season of baseball, and you know it was amazing but I didn't know how to grow spiritually. I didn't know how to get in the word, I didn't know how to pray, I didn't know how to fellowship with other people, and you know then people asked me you know how could you; a couple years later I got into drugs and alcohol and that sort of thing, so they say how could you have done that? You know, you know if you want to follow Christ, you know, how could you have done these things? You know I tell them, you know, Satan comes at us a lot harder once he knows we're a child of God, then if we're not because if we're not, he doesn't have to worry about us. He's already got us.

And I'd like to make that point, but you know for the next few years, I was, you know, I got caught up in drugs and alcohol..

RHS: How did that happen? You had such a wonderful family life, such a wonderful church life growing up?

JH: I did. You know I just say it comes down to choices. You know I was obviously going to church growing up, but I never made that decision to follow Christ and have that personal relationship with Him. And you know I had those morals and values instilled in me but when it came down to it, you know, the world grabbed a hold of me and made those decisions to you know do that.

RHS: How did you take your first drug or alcohol?

JH: You know under the suit, guys, I have tattoos everywhere. You know you wouldn't know it by looking at me right now, but I started hanging out in, you know, a tattoo parlor and, you know the people weren't bad there, they made some bad decisions and it was one of those things where you know the two things I knew in my life up unto that point were baseball and my parents. And not using it as an excuse, but you know being young, having money, you know I got caught up in the worldly things, in material things and hanging out with these guys and they took me out one night and introduced me to alcohol, took me to a strip club, first time going there, and then later on that night, it was, you know, here's a line of cocaine. And you know obviously I knew what it was, but I asked how it made you feel and then I proceeded to try it.

RHS: That was it?

JH: That was the beginning. You know I wasn't addicted immediately by no means, but over the next couple of weeks I used a few times and you know when I had baseball, I never used after that but when I get hurt, I'd go back to using. And it was just a vicious cycle which ended up, you know, taking control of my life in every aspect.

RHS: What did that do to your life, your marriage, your career?

JH: It destroyed everything. You know it took my career from me, it was taking my health from me, I weigh 235 right now, I was 180 pounds at my lowest, you know, my wife left me, with two kids. We didn't get divorced, but you know she separated herself from me and you know I ended up at my grandmother's house. And she always told me I could come there for any reason or anything, and one night I'd used a couple times in a couple weeks there, and she knew something wasn't right with me, and she came and confronted me about it, and all the times my family had told me, you know, you're killing yourself, you're wasting your life, you know, you're worrying us to death and all those things. For some reason, God opened my heart that night and allowed me to hear that from my grandmother. And seeing the tears in her face, He allowed me to hear that and that was the last time I used drugs.

RHS: So you're separated from your wife, are you let go from baseball?

JH: I am, I'm suspended from baseball, I was suspended for 3 years, I was out of the game 3 ½ years, but at my grandmother's house, you know, after that, I'm out of baseball this time and here's a bible on the end of the bed. And I walk in and I grab it and I toss it on the bed and I go to close the door and I'm going to, you know, I'm going to read it. And the first verse I read was James 4:7, "Humble yourself before God, resist the devil and He will flee from you."

RHS: Wow.

JH: And every time, you know, I'd get a craving or, you know, think about drugs, I would say that verse. And then I started memorizing more verses and I started going to church again, and I started praying and then I started getting into Bible studies and doing devotionals and, you know, and then God restored things to me. Restored my family. And then baseball came. And it's amazing when you put God and Christ first in your life, everything else is just, He restores and He just looks out for us.

RHS: Baseball came back to you, for you. They believed in what had happened to you.

JH: They did, and you talk about God softening hearts, I was supposed to be clean an entire year and I was only clean 6 months when I got reinstated. So God had a bigger plan and my wife in the midst of my addiction, my wife came to me and said you know Josh, I've been praying about this and God's laid on my heart He's going to allow you to get back to baseball. But it's not going to be about baseball. It's going to be about sharing with people what He's done in your life and how He's got you through the storms. And every day now, I get a chance to do this: talk about, you know, what I've been through and how God has changed my life and I see it coming true. And it's just amazing.

RHS: I see a beautiful humility. I see a spirit coming out of those eyes. You can't hide it. It is the spirit of Jesus in you. I know; it takes one to know one! It's really true. I feel it in you, thank you. Thank you for giving your life back.

JH: Thank you so much.

RHS: And was it the grandmother visit that turned you back?

JH: It was, and it was God's timing.

RHS: Yeah.

JH: You know, because there were so many times when I was out using that I cursed God. I mean, you know, I was like how can you do this to me, why are you doing this to me, when in all actuality, I was doing it to myself. And I couldn't see that. And you know but He was by my side all the time. He was watching over me, you know, I should be dead, I should have killed somebody or I should be in jail, or you know I just shouldn't be here. And He was watching me and by my side the whole time, walking through it with me.

RHS: A lot of people out here, some in this church right now; Millions watching on television. They turn preachers off. They won't turn you off if you tell them what God wants you to say to them now.

JH: Well, you know, if you're going through struggles out there, if you're close to the temptation of doing things or getting into worldly things or getting into drugs or you're thinking about it or you're feeling peer pressure, or whatever it is you're feeling, you know I was feeling those things, too. And I experienced those things. I recommend you don't experience those things. You know, then the way I got out of those was by accepting Christ, and by moving into the direction and surrendering to Him. You know I had to surrender everything. You know nothing gets taken away, you know, you don't lose your house, you don't lose, you know, your job or anything like that, you give over the worry that you have and that's what I ended up doing, I gave it all to Jesus and you know if you're having those struggles today, He can take them, you know, He can make your burdens light and you know its an amazing thing and you know if I can encourage anybody to have a life changing experience, it would be to accept Christ and live for Him. And you know would you like to lead us in a salvation prayer?

RHS: Thank you. Oh God, I don't know who is listening, I don't know where they are, but I know everybody that's listening needs a closer walk with Jesus. And You've sent this wonderful, terrific athlete, one of America's greatest baseball players to share his testimony of how he had it and then he got astray, and then he came back and opened the bible to a verse that would forever keep him changed. Look at this person. A young person high school, college, oh God, and look at them wherever they are in the world, and let them say Jesus, I don't want to make the biggest mistake, I don't want to turn my back on You. I want to do what I have to do to live a good life. I want to accept You, Jesus Christ, as my Savior, dying on the cross for me. I want to accept You as my Savior through Your spirit, working in my mind and memory and heart to become a beautiful Christian. And thank You God, for Josh, who led us to You this morning. Continue to bless him, hallelujah, amen.

JH: Amen. Thank you so much. My pleasure.

RHS INTRODUCES JOYCE JONES

RHS: We have with us in person one of the world's most renowned organist, Joyce Jones. Joyce was on her way to becoming a concert pianist when she strained her wrists. Guess what she did? Turn your scars into stars? That's what she did. She started to practice her piano music with her feet on the organ keyboard and the rest is history. And Joyce the whole world, I think, of musicians knows your name. She's also teaching organists at Baylor University. We had dinner with her last night, because my wife is into the organ like you can't believe. Well you can if look up there. Joyce, thank you for coming.

JJ: Thank you so much for the opportunity to be here. I've been so grateful to God for the fortunate accident that turned me to an organist and showed me what He wanted me to do with my life.

RHS: What are you playing for us?

JJ: I'm doing prelude in B major by Marcel Dupre' who was one of the finest organist' of the twentieth century.

RHS: You know the organist is the only instrumentalist that has to use both hands, both arms and both feet. So enjoy.

ORGAN SOLO – JOYCE JONES – “Prelude in B Major”

RHS THANK YOU TO JOYCE JONES

RHS: Thank you, thank you, thank you.

VOICE OVER TO RHS MESSAGE

VO: Today on the Hour of Power, with all the negative economic news these days, do you need encouragement for every day living? Let Dr. Robert Schuller help you find your smile again with his powerful message, How to Put a WOW in your Tomorrows! Here is Dr. Robert Schuller.

MESSAGE/PRAYER - ROBERT H. SCHULLER

"How to Put a WOW in Your Tomorrows!"

RHS: Hear the word of God from Psalm 18. "It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect. He makes my feet like the feet of deer, and sets me up on high places."

Well, I'm a believer in God. I can't prove it. Someone said to me, "You might be wrong." And I said, "Maybe I am, but if I am wrong, I'm sure glad I followed this way." Because things have happened in my life that I can't explain if I deny the presence and the power and the peace of God. I'm a believer. I'm a believer today, more than ever before in my life.

Now, live the life committed to faith and you'll live a WOW life.

I've chosen to give these few words a little title. The title is, "How to put a WOW in your tomorrows!" I have a WOW in my tomorrows. I have never in my life been more excited, more enthused, more optimistic, more turned on with an inner spiritual energy than I am today. My tomorrow has a WOW in it and I want to tell you how I got it, where it comes from because I think you can use the principles. There are four principles that I've lived with and still do. How do you put a WOW in your tomorrows? I mean, let me take a moment to tell you, it's so important.

I only read recently the article by an op-ed piece in Time Magazine, The Paradox of Prosperity, written by Nancy Gibbs. It's a profound article. Really, what she's saying is we live more prosperous today than we've ever lived before in the United States of America and yet there is an anxiety level that is profoundly disturbing. How do you explain it?

A psychiatrist said, in an another article, Burned Out But Bored, Dr. Dahl, Ronald Dahl, whom I do not know, Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center. Dr. Dahl writes, "We are burned out and bored." He took his kids on a day out, took them on big thrilling rides in one of the amusement parks. And when it was all finished they were kind of bored. They really didn't get the kick out of it that he thought they would. A very profound insight by this psychiatrist who says that we are offered so much stimulation that today what should excite us doesn't excite us. What should turn us on doesn't turn us on. What happened to the WOW?

If you watch television, and some kids still watch far too much television, and they see the chase and the shooting and the killing, pretty soon it's boring. Over stimulation leads you quickly to a dull life because what can turn you on after you've tested almost everything. Have you noticed a phrase that's come into vogue lately? It's not a new phrase. I heard it when I was a kid, but it's being used a lot today. The phrase is, "I've been there, I've done it, I've seen it."

So, if you've been there and you've done it and you've seen it, out goes the WOW. How can you put a WOW back into your life? Some people are telling me they're so overwhelmed with paper and with junk mail, they call it, and with telephone calls and now E-mail is coming in heavier than ever. They are so overloaded with input into their communication channel that they feel overwhelmed and they don't have time to follow up all of the ideas and the stimulations that come to them. So, they feel life's passing them by. They're not with it anymore. Once they were at the point position, not today. Today they're not in, they're out. Life's passing them by. The WOW is gone.

I want to put the WOW back into your life. It's been in my life all my life and I've taken time recently to analyze what put the WOW in Schuller's life and I want to share it with you. I've condensed it to four thoughts. The first is: you have to have a purpose to live for. Second: you have to be a self that you can live with. And three: you have to have a faith that you can live by. And four: you need a leader you can trust. Now that's my testimony. I'm standing in front of you to tell you that I've lived a life, it's an open book. I'm no longer a private person. Almost anything that can be written about Schuller has been written by people. True, false, maybe a mixture. Here's my testimony. I'm excited about life today and tomorrow. There's a WOW in it. Why? Because I have a passion that's fed by my purpose in living. What are you living for? I don't live for the chase. I don't live for the kick. I don't live for stimulation that'll excite me. I don't look for it. I look for great causes that I'd be willing to die for. Find a cause that you'd die for and give it all you've got. Then, guess what? You will be impassioned with a purpose, a reason for living.

One of the great influences of my life, as many of you know, was Dr. Viktor Frankl. In my mind probably the premier psychiatrist of this 20th century, died at the age of 92. And he's taught me a lot and I've learned much from him, from his books, from his lectures, and from his friendship. I'll never forget how he said once, "The is must never catch up with the ought." If you've had goals and they've been realized what you have to do, you need a new goal. As Dr. Frankl put it so wisely and well in the Old Testament the Israelites were led to the Promised Land. How? By a pillar of fire at night and by a cloud by day. "Never catch up with your goals," Dr. Frankl said. The is must never catch up with the ought. Purpose must be continually within your life to impassion you. What is my purpose? It's a Person. His name is Jesus Christ. In my life all I want to do is give people the joy of living that is my life and the life of my wife and the life of my five kids, a purpose to live for.

Then, the second thing, you need a self that you can be proud to live with. Self-esteem Theology. I wrote it a quarter of a century ago. I preached it every week, and still do, to an audience that is of a size I cannot number. But let me tell you, I'm proud of who I am. I've never gone to bed a night in my life ashamed of what I did or who I was. Now that's remarkable. I have many a night, probably every night, had to ask forgiveness for sins. Oh yes! But sins are no excuse for inflicting shame on your soul. When you know the Friend that I have and His name is Jesus Christ, you know that He loves you even though you're not perfect.

I'm doing a lot of writing on a theme, simple theme, called friendship. I wrote a line, "A friend is somebody who loves you after they've seen you at your worst." Jesus loves us anyway. A self you can live with, a purpose that can impassion you, and three, you need a faith that you can live by and of course, you can't have a faith in God or in Jesus Christ if you don't even trust and believe in yourself.

I'm reading in this wonderful book. The foreword is written by a dear friend of mine and this church, who has stood in this pulpit more than once, many times and that's Tommy Lasorda. And reading Tommy's wonderful foreword to the book reminded me of a story he told me once. He said...well, it was many, many years ago. Before he was the manager of the Dodgers, he was the manager of a little farm team and the farm team wasn't doing too well. They lost 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 games in a row and they were all demoralized and they were getting ready for their next game and Tommy thought, "Boy, it better not be a seventh loss in a row. I don't think they can handle it and I don't know if I can handle it."

When the paper came out with a big story and the story was that all of the sportswriters of America had been asked to vote on the number one team in the history of American League Baseball, and the story broke the morning that Tommy's team would play their seventh game. The story was that the greatest baseball team in American League history, overwhelmingly the sportswriters said it's the 1927 Yankee team. Well, they went to their seventh game that evening and they lost the game. They went in the locker room and Tommy said he never in his life looked at a team more depressed than the team he was looking at.

He said, "I walked in there and I said, 'Hey, what's the matter with you guys? Get your heads up. You're terrific.'" "So," he said, "did you read the paper this morning? Did you read the sports page? What was the greatest baseball team in the history of the American League? The greatest baseball team in the history of American baseball, it's the 1927 Yankees."

"Did anybody ever tell you that that team lost nine games in a row before they turned around and went on to become champions, and today they're voted the best baseball team in history. Did anybody ever tell you that? And the guys said, 'no' and their heads went up and their eyes got big and their mouths dropped open." As Tommy says, "Well, they were turned around. They went out the next game, they won. They won the next one. They had a winning streak and they ended up champions of the year. And Jo," that's Mrs. Lasorda. Tommy said, "Jo said to me, near the end of the year, she said, 'Tommy, are you sure the Yankees had nine straight losses in a row?'" He said, "I don't know."

He said, "I didn't say they did. I just asked them, 'did anybody ever tell you.' I don't know. I was only one year old in 1927. I have no idea. But," he said, "I had to make a point. They had to believe in themselves and boy it worked, Jo. And I made a point and they became believers in themselves again and they went and became the great team."

How do you put a WOW in life? You need a purpose that will impassion you. You need a self that will give you pride. You need to give a ... you need to have a faith that'll keep you going through the losses and through the defeats and through the tough times. A purpose that will give you passion. A self that'll give you pride. A faith that'll give you perseverance that you'll never, never quit. And the fourth thing you need--and you won't have number one, or two, or three without number four--you need a leader that you can trust. For me, that's Jesus Christ. He gives me a purpose that I'd die for. Yeah! He gives me a self that I'm proud of. He gives me a faith that keeps me going through thick and thin. A leader I can trust. Who can you trust? You can trust Jesus, absolutely.

Let me tell you, in the history of religion, no religion has ever been positioned as we are. Why? We have a purpose we'd die for. We have a self that we're not ashamed of. We have a faith that solves the problems. All because we're following a Leader that we can trust. His name is Jesus Christ.

Now you want to put a WOW in your tomorrow, let me tell you how you can do that. Make a decision to become a follower of Jesus Christ, the Lord, my Savior. He'll be yours, too. Then I ask you to become a part of this movement; A movement that, for want of a better name, is called the Crystal Cathedral Ministries. It's reaching into houses and homes of millions and millions of people every week and it's not going to die. It will not depend upon the life of this body and this face that's talking to you now. It's because the book out lasts and out lives, it's because the Leader is eternal and His name is Jesus Christ.

Let's pray:

O God, we are Yours. You are our leader. We follow You and boy, what a WOW in our tomorrows. And I pray if anybody's listening to me that isn't enthused or excited about their future, that they may join our movement, make a commitment where they are, privately and quietly, and say, "I'm going to be a part of that movement. I'm going to pray for them. I'm going to pray for Dr. Schuller. I'm going to support that work. I'm going to become a part of a movement that is positioned to impact the world like no faith ever has in the history of humanity on planet Earth." And O God, we're making a difference and that's exciting. Amen.

O for the wings, for the wings of a dove! Far away, far away would I rove. O for the wings, for the wings of a dove! Far away, far away, far away, far away would I rove.

In the wilderness build me a nest and remain there forever at rest, in the wilderness, build me, build me a nest, and remain there forever at rest. In the wilderness, build me, build me a nest, and remain there forever at rest.

O for the wings, for the wings of a dove! Far away, far away would I rove. O for the wings, for the wings of a dove! Far away, far away, far away, far away would I rove.

In the wilderness build me a nest, and remain there forever at rest, in the wilderness, build me, build me a nest, and remain there forever at rest. In the wilderness, build me, build me a nest, and remain there forever at rest.

O for the wings, for the wings of a dove! O for the wings, for the wings of a dove!
